Spelling Words Week 3 – Group A (Student copy)

Consonant-le Syllables

- Consonant-le syllables look like this:
  - ble
  - gle
  - zle
- This syllable always comes at the end of a word.
- To read these syllables, make the sound of the consonant that begins it. Then add the sound /uh/ + /l/. Say the /uh/ sound like you just got elbowed in the stomach.
- For example, ble says /b-uh-l/
